As Phil fights for his dream while clashing with the head coach, he becomes a good luck charm for the players. Haynes can't really send Phil home because he's superstitious and the players like having Phil around. Haynes, always watching or listening, waiting for Phil to screw up so he can let him have it, allows this awkward situation to continue because all that matters is winning and they win like no team has ever won before!

MCNAIR FIELD - FOREST CITY, NC

SUMMARY

This is an inspirational story about dedication and what can be accomplished when 27 players from different towns come together and all commit to playing for the good of the TEAM. It took a Canadian with little coaching experience and definitely out of his element to have these young men understand what they could achieve.

Coach Sanders had to find a reason to not be sent home by Coach Haynes and that was by winning as many Baseball games as possible so that is what the Owls did.

The Forest City Owls of Forest City, North Carolina, had a record of 51 Wins and only 9 losses in 2009. (.850 Winning %) Winning the Coastal Plain League Championship along with being ranked as the #1 Collegiate Summer Baseball team in America.

4 Owls players have gone on to wear Major League Baseball uniforms while two of the players have won the World Series. 1 with the Boston Red Sox and 1 with the Chicago Cubs

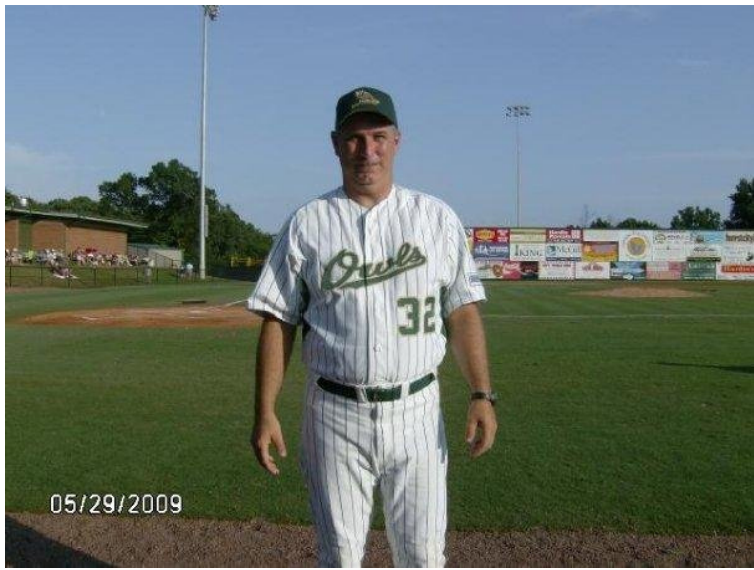

"I want to make this feature film mostly for the players, so the world can see what can be accomplished when a group of athletes of any sport dedicates themselves to playing for the good of the team rather than themselves." - Phil Savage
